

Answers to the questions received on the 23th of May 2018

1. No, there isn't, but the equipment mentioned are to be first class equipment.
2. Yes
3. The existing floor is to be kept. The new floor is to be made the same color of the existing one or as close image/color as possible. The proposal or specimen is to be made by the contractor for solution of the problem.
4. The floor in question is to be demolished first and then the designer and the contractor will decide the solution.
5. Ambasada da odredi vreme obilaska
6. 60 days deadline, as it is determined at the part 2.16 of the Tender documents, refers to preparation of the main construction project and execution of works.
7. All these special projects are under the main contract managed by the main contractor.
8. Conditions of payment are given at the part 2.12 of the Tender documents. Invoices should be issued as follows:
 - Invoice for advance payment (if advance payment is required by Contractor) and
 - Invoice for work done.
9. There is going to be only one contract signed with the main Contractor as it is showed at the part 7 of a Tender documents. Main contractor is allowed to engage subcontractors as it is described at the part 2.8 of the Tender documents.
10. It should be according to that form. If some part is missing, add it separately because offers of all bidders should be comparable.
11. Yes.
12. These are just designing drawings prepared by designer and main contractor will have to do project of execution of works which should be submitted to the local government agencies for approval and start the works.